

JULY 16-20

LISD'S YOUNG WRITERS CAMP

Leander ISD's Young Writers Camp is designed for writers of all abilities and attitudes! 21st century literacy and communication skills require practice and application opportunities, and writing camp helps all our young writers grow in their craft to meet the demands of an ever-changing world. Camp instructors will provide small group instruction and one-on-one conferencing to take writers to the next level by building skills relevant to their writing proficiency both inside and outside of school.

To register, please visit www.leanderisd.org. From the left-hand menu, select Summer Information > Summer Camps > Register for Academic Camps.

Camp is designed for incoming LISD 6th-12th graders.

Experience deep genre immersion, personalized feedback, and heaps of strategies and techniques to help broaden understanding of writer's craft.

Camp is structured to mimic the writing process from brainstorming to publication.
